Who Ranks As the Greatest Magician in the Country, is Coming to Clarksburg—He Will Be at the Grand Opera House Next Wednesday.

Magician Kellar, who is without doubt the peer of any magician who ever lived, will shortly be seen in this city. He will offer a series of new masterpieces in Oriental necromancy and illusionary work, excelling anything he has achieved in past years. In the way of small magic he will present a number of new experiments, in pure sleight-of-hand, of which he is absolute master, some of which with other performers would be entitled to place with larger illusions. His entire program as given in Boston will be presented in this city at the Traders Grand Opera House, Wednesday evening, April 20.

The Property Called Health

Runs down or improves, just depends on how it is cared for. It is the most valuable property we have, and should receive the most consideration. It helps you in business, helps good looks, helps makes friends, helps get situations and help you hold them, and always makes happiness. Property like this, at the first indication of being out of repair, should be looked after and a remedy applied at once. There are any number of signs that show repairs are needed. Bilious spells, indigestion, dyspepsia, belching, dizziness, sick-headache, sallow complexion, pimples and liver spots on the face, a drowsy feeling after meals, sour stomach, etc. These symptoms all show loss of health. Druggists will sell you for 25c, a box of Dr. Gunn's Improved Liver Pills, a sure cure for all of these diseases. Sold by Stone & Mercer.

EXPRESS MESSENGER ARRESTED.

By Associated Press.

Chicago, April 15—Arthur S. Alpin, a messenger, formerly in the employ of the American Express Company, in Cleveland, and now wanted on the charge of embezzlement, was arrested here to-day.

How to Break Up a Cold.

After exposure take Foley's Honey and Tar. It stops the cough, heals and strengthens the lungs, and is safe and sure. Contains no opiates. A. A. Heron, of Finch, Ark., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar is the best preparation for coughs, colds and lung trouble. I know that it has cured consumption in the first stages."—Sold by Stone and Mercer.

The Good of Medicine.

People insisting that medicine does no good, have one stubborn fact to contend with, that is, the people who do believe are greatly in the majority. We have been so fortunate during the past 20 years as to convince thousands of sufferers with weak water blood, who had all the symptoms of a general breaking down of the system, that one medicine at least does good. Nervous and untidy people, weak, fleshless people, pimply, pale or sallow people can have strong, steady nerves, and solid healthy flesh by the use of Dr. Gunn's Blood and Nerve Tonic. A tablet to take at meal time it turns the food you eat into rich red blood, making solid flesh at the rate of 1 to 3 lbs. per week. Sold by all druggists for 75c. per box, or three boxes for $2.00. This medicine saves doctor bills and insures health, giving the very best treatment possible. Sold by Stone & Mercer.

Wedding Tones.

"The custom of taking wedding tones is a remnant of the ancient times when men got their wives by capture," said a professor to a class in Roman history recently. "As soon as a man captured the woman he wanted to marry," continued the professor, "the young couple ran away to avoid the wrath of the bride's relatives. Men don't get their wives by capture now, but the custom of taking wedding tones still survives, a reminder of the ancient times." The professor was led to make these remarks while discussing the legend of the capture of the Sabine women.

Sciatic Rheumatism Cured.

"I have been subject to sciatic rheumatism for years," says E. H. Waldron, of Wilton Junction, Iowa. "My joints were stiff and gave me much pain and discomfort. My joints would crack when I straightened up. I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and have been thoroughly cured. Have not had a pain or ache from the old trouble for many months. It is certainly a most wonderful liniment. For sale by G. C. Stone, druggist.

Happy When They Are in Jail.

"Many a prisoner as soon as he steps foot in the outer office," said a Charles street jail officer, "throws himself into a chair with a sigh of relief, muttering, 'This is the first happy hour in many months.' This is especially true of men charged with large embezzlements. Their consciences seem to be on the verge of collapse until they arrive under the shadow of the jail, when they then see their future clearly."—Boston Record.

A Man Is What He Eats.

I have seen some of the uncooked fruits and nuts people. I don't say I saw the right ones. Like enough, I saw only those who, for the good of the cause, should never have been allowed to wander forth into society. They one and all professed loudly to be in the rudest physical health. It seemed to me they lacked the proper scenic accessories. A floral pillow with "Rest" on it in immortelles, say about here, and a sheaf of wheat tied with purple satin faced ribbon over there would have seemed more natural and suited their complexion better. As to their mental vigor, after I had heard them talk awhile I gave right in to their most cardinal doctrine: A man is what he eats. If he eats beef he becomes of the beef beefy; if he eats nuts he becomes—but enough.—Every-

A Great Sensation.

There was a big sensation in Leesville Ind., when W. H. Brown, of that place, who was expected to die, had his life saved by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. He writes: "I endured insufferable agonies from asthma, but your New Discovery gave me immediate relief and soon thereafter effected a complete cure." Similar cures of consumption, pneumonia, bronchitis and grip are numerous. It's the peerless remedy for all throat and lung troubles. Price, 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by F. G. Bland and Stone & Mercer, druggists. Trial bottles free.

How Cossacks Catch Fish.

The Cossacks on some of the rivers in Russia have a singular method of catching the finny tribe in winter. They cut a long trench across a river when frozen and run a net from one bank to the other; then, rising several miles up the stream, they form a line across the frozen surface and gallop their horses down toward the nets. The fish, hearing the noise and clatter of hoofs, become frightened, dart with a rush downstream and are thus entangled in the net

A. H. Thune's Remarkable Case.

A. H. Thurnes, manager Wills Creek Coal Co., Buffalo, O., writes: "I have been afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble for years, passing gravel and stones with excruciating pains. Other medicines only gave relief. After taking Foley's Kidney Cure the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick dust, like fine stones, and now I have no pain across my kidneys and I feel like a new man. Foley's Kidney Cure has done me $1,000 worth of good." Sold by Stone & Mercer.
